

MANAGING THE DEVELOPMENT OF NON – COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATIONS ON THE BASIS OF BALANCED INTERACTION BETWEEN THE STATE AND THE ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN THE SOCIAL AREA

© 2006 V. M. Ramzaev

International Market Institute, Samara

The paper considers the concept of managing non – commercial organizations on the basis of interaction between the state and the entrepreneurship in economic systems of the social sphere. According to the model proposed balance or optimum is achieved in the event that aggregate volume of services provided by state social institutions together with the aggregate volume of services provided by the non – state non – commercial sector meet the social demands of the individual and the society.